Welcome to Our Galaxy

In astronomy, a Trojan is a celestial body that shares the orbit of a larger body. What better way to describe Peach County High School? We are stars in our own right; yet, we still contribute to the soul of our county. To be a Trojan is to be destined for greatness. Our success is "written in the stars", and we are ready to let the light shine. That being said, many of us have learned to accept the darker days along with the illumination, and we have recognized that all stars sparkle in their own ways. Even as our senior celestials prepare for new orbits, they know they can always follow the path that leads back home. Without further ado, adjust your telescope and make your wishes on this astronomical journey.

STARRY EYES,

Like constellations, this class of 2025 is connected in more ways than we can imagine. Some have been in the same classes since Byron Eagle kindergarten; others have shared overheated bus rides down the streets of Fort Valley. Whether it is through school, family, friends, or sports, our senior year reminds us that we all share the proud title of a Peach County Trojan. Now it is time to make sure our success is written in the stars!

Celebration comes in the morning for Emma Huggins and Kim Howard but in the afternoon for Nikira Lockhart and Madison Gates.

BELOW: Sarah Owens never misses an opportunity to boast her awesome Lady Trojans softball team.

Destiny Penny has her eyes wide open for the opportunities coming her way.

Don't let the hair fool you. Nothing is blue about Machara Miller's senior year.

Clearly, it is no time to play games for Diego Perez-Rodriguez.

The time is now for Aaliya Melendez who longs for graduation day.

LOW: Erin McDowell
unds the trumpet for the rs of the show.

ABOVE: Brisa Ortega throws a "peace out" as she awaits her next journey.

BELOW: Senior year is a serious matter for Stephen Cox.

LEFT: A smile creeps up on Jaiya Johnson's face as she hurries before the bell rings.

RIGHT: A wave of "hello" in the first week of school hardly compares to the wave Owen
Marinoff will feel when he says
"goodbye" to PCHS.

1. Gabby Dennis smiles at her newfound senior superpowers. 2. Layla Brantley holds her head high now that she is PCHS royalty. 3. Joey dreams of "decking" the halls in graduation regalia.

BELOW: Esmeralda, Saniya, and Gianna dare anyone to get in the way of their senior shenanigans!

1. It looks like Nasiur Ash is already over it for the year. 2. Naomi Beza-Stevenson smiles as she walks the halls; however, her proudest walk will be for her diploma.
3. What's that sound, Ramiro? The graduation commencement?

Class of 2025: Senior Spotlights

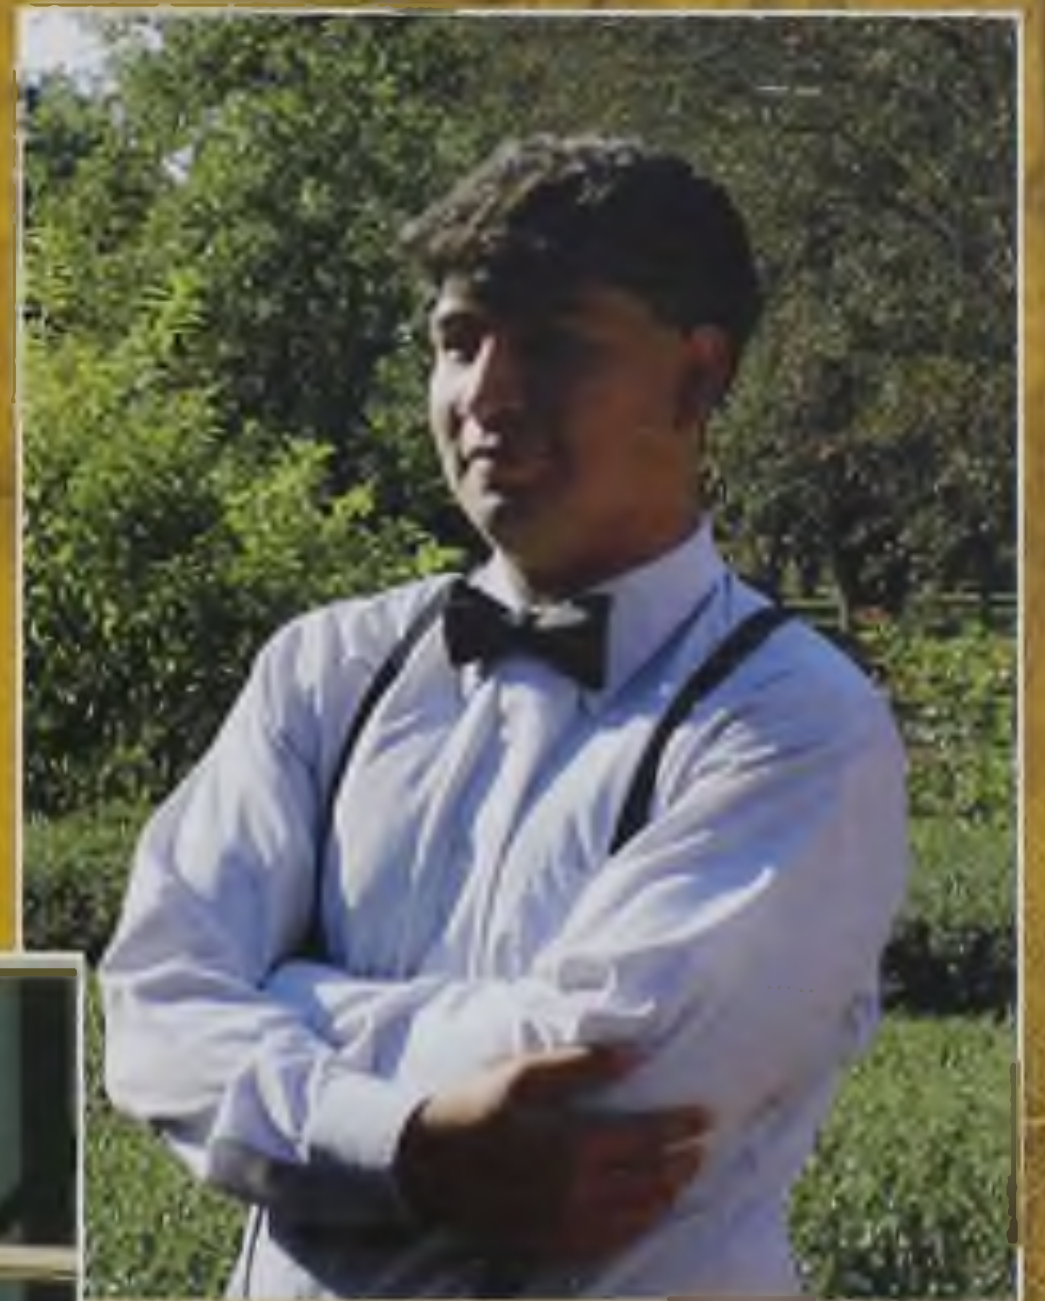

Osten Rigby, Jaya Howard, D.J. Hudson, Lillian Gurr, Gregory Johnson, Paulina Ceballos Velasco, Trey Dean, Lizbeth Turrubiates, Layla Brantley, Angel Rodriguez

It is easy enough to win the allegiance and comradery of our fellow Trojans. However, it is a whole other challenge to impress our teachers and administration. For this, we need more than just hot clothes, neat edges, and Gucci. Hence, it is time to applaud our Senior Spotlights—those chosen by faculty and staff as setting the best examples of what a Trojan should be. These elites are taken to the beautiful Massena Lane Gardens, where they take part in a glamorous photo session. Afterwards, they "break bread" together at Tapatio and share some senior laughs. Without further adieu, let us applaud these spotlights who shine in the Trojan atmosphere.

Layla Brantley & Angel Rodriguez

Layla Brantley will be attending Georgia Southern to pursue her dream of becoming a Dietitian. Throughout her high school career Layla was a Golden Girl and In theatre. She is beyond grateful to have had an amazing guidance of Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Jones.

Angel has been a proud member of our PCHS Marching Band and our Trojan Football team. He plans to earn a doctorate for math education and become a positive role model for students. He thanks Mr. Hedgpeth for this inspiration, as he is the perfect example of who Angel wants to be.

Osten is a proud member of our Partners Club, Cross Country team, and he is an awesome coach for our Special Olympics teams. Osten is considering a career in mechanical engineering or enlisting in the Coast Guard.

Trey Dean will attending Georgia Southern to study marine biology. Mr. Partain has influenced in and many ways. When Trey looks into the stars he sees himself living at the beach in Florida next to the whales.

Osten Rigby & Trey Dean

Jaya Howard & Lillian Gurr

Jaya plans to get her real estate license after high-school. Throughout high school, Mr. Hill has inspired her in photography and house design. Mrs. Martin has taught her to be confident and has all together brought her out of her shell.

Lillian plans to attend Columbus State University. She fell in love with theater when she auditioned for One Act her freshmen year. Whether she is a theater teacher or she is on the stage in her future, she hopes to support herself and her loved ones.

A doctor of dermatology is in Paulina's future. Teacher's who have influenced her success include Mrs. Heller, Dr. George, Mr. Staten, Coach Gore and Mrs. Fella. Paulina plans for a happy and healthy life while being surrounded by loved ones.

Paulina Ceballos Velasco & Lizbeth Turrubiates

Lizbeth plans to attend college and specialize in neonatal nursing. Mrs. Spivey is a teacher who has pushed her towards this goal through her support. Much like a shooting star, Lizbeth plans to travel and see the world.

Don Hudson, Jr. & Gregory Johnson

D.J. Plans to continue his stardom on the field for college football. He debates between majoring in mechanical engineering or joining the military to serve our country. Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. McCain have influenced D.J. to be the best he can be at all times.

Greg has served as a proud player for our Trojan football team. His plan is to attend a four-year college and get a degree in business management. He wants to recognize and credit Coach Westbrook for his success because he is the MAN!

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES:

CHOOSING OUR

OWN STARS

While Senior Spotlights are prestigious and inspiring, we still need to make room for those who have stood out amongst their peers. These accolades can address what glimmers on the outside, such as Best Dressed; honors also go to those who sparkle on the inside, such as does Best Attitude. So let's put on our night goggles to acknowledge these stars who have been hand-picked by their Class of 2025!

Stars of the Show: Madison Gates & Kim Howard

Gemini Twins:
Rebecca Griggs

MEET THE

STARGAZERS

RIGHT: Willante Shinholster picks clothes that match the spirit. Stars are all around for this young man.

ABOVE: Bryce Hughley gazes at a winning season for the Trojans.

While the Class of 2025 may be our most anxious celestials, the majority of our Peaches are further from the galaxy, gazing at the stars they hope to become. Still, there is much to explore in the underclassmen world—newfound parking passes, getting those tedious P.E. credits out of the way, and growing these friendships that mean so much. As of right now, they are neutron stars that can't be seen. However, time will surely reveal their first-magnitude and show just how bright they can be.

BELOW: Jouvani Santiago knows that sophomore years means he's halfway there!

BELOW: Someone is getting a sneaky side-eye from Elajah Wiggins. RIGHT: It is time to "reach high" for Alivia Staton, who is a proud member of our volleyball team this year.

LEFT: Don't let that baby face fool you; Avery Horne has slid into this year with full force.

BELOW: Senior year feels like it is just around the corner for Aleshia Plant, Class of 2026.

LEFT: Saige Strong is in shock that she is part of this fine campus her freshman year.

RIGHT: When the afternoon bell rings, Landyn Barton is ready for some R&R.

LEFT: That's a heck of a star that Kori Phillips must see in the distance.

BELOW: That "car rider" lifestyle isn't permanent for Imani Wootson

ABOVE: Megan Jones, Joi Merrell, and Ryenne Stephens look forward to star delicacies now that Chef Simmons is in this house!

ABOVE: Jaivon Cain is distracted from gazing into that computer to get some work done, but Yoselin Vergara ortiz is all about the pose.

ABOVE: Jenna Johnson gazes at the best diamond there is—the LADY TROJANS DIAMOND!

ABOVE: Smiles accompany our band "everywhere they go", especially with Sophia Alcantar "gazing ahead".

BELOW: Freshman year must be a mouthful for Ja'sunn Hillman!

BELOW: This "Angel" gazes for what's to come.

BELOW: Madison & Madelyn are stars that shine together.

BELOW: Sign language class awaits Jovon Towns.

BELOW: The only thing better than gazing at the stars is waving a Trojan flag in the night sky, which is what Kalia Mitchell does every Friday night with our Trojan Marching Band.

BELOW: Our Homecoming pep rally brings the best out of all of us. Alyssa Crozier and Aybrian Smith challenge the Class of 2025 to see who has the most spirit, and Ashton Hayes provides awesome back up!

JUNIOR TROJANS: FINDING THEIR FIELD OF VIEW

That's right—these stargazers are just within sight of all that our PCHS galaxy has to offer. For those new to astronomy jargon, your field of view includes the circle of sky that you see when you look through a telescope. Likewise, these eager juniors finally have access to this scene, although they haven't quite made it to Senior Stardom yet. Until that time comes, there are new pressures on these Stars in Waiting. After all, Milestones, driving privileges, and prom shines bright in their atmosphere, along with the friendships that make the journey worth it.

1. The sun shines behind Dylan Hortman as he approaches a great day. 2. Jayden Wilson decides to "take it outside" for lunch. 3. Her fashionable purse makes for a great catalyst to keep Tiffany Mizell deep in thought. 4. Jessica Peterson has her goals clear in sight this year. ABOVE: Despite her unique look, nothing is "blue" about Azaria Burr-Major as she looks forward to a "peaceful" year alongside Harmony Smith, Ariyahna Jordan, Kelsey Wesley, Taylor Jones, and Nathan Barton.

ABOVE: Each hand gesture differs for Xavion Childs, D'juan Tripp, Markese Thompson, and Jamaury Small, but their Junior vibe is the same.

1. The wind is blowing towards success for Valeria Aguilar-Garza. 2. Micah Lowder finds humor written in his stars. 3. This year will be a "ball" for Shaniyah Gibson. 4. Jordan Horton decides to be the star of the show that plays in the background.

ABOVE: The class of 2026 has given the seniors a run for their money when it comes to school spirit, as we see at the Homecoming pep rally.

Victor and Michael conspire

It is the second year for these bright stars of Peach County. They've explored their ways throughout the Trojan Universe. Even with trials and tribulations, our Sophomores have accepted the in-between world—they still can't attend prom, but they are on the brink of getting their licenses and no longer being the novas on campus.

Look who is in it to "Nguyen" it!

LEFT: Cory Rawls appreciates downtime during third lunch and catches up on texting.

BOVE: The Trojan stadium is the place for Sarah Prince, Ashleigh Bloodworth, Olivia Alvarado, andacey Carey to include outsiders in the Peach spirit.

This Peach party isn't ready for Hunter Strickland!

Connor Floyd is "squeezing in" this first year.

Haley Sharp and Aubrie Wingo plan to start their high school experience side-by-side.

Abigail Ortiz approves of her education.

Derrick Clark will have to give this year some thought.

This freshmen class is one for the books, being the largest cohort we have ever had. They are the NOVAS—newly formed stars in our system. The more, the merrier for the Class of 2028 as they see just how many stars are in the Peach galaxy. They know this feeling of newness is only temporary as they keep the the goal in mind to walk across that stage one day. Until then, they are in awe of the newfound freedoms that exist at the high school level.

Senior Citizens v. Boss Babies

It is Homecoming Week in the Valley, and nobody knows how to bring on the celebrations like the PCHS Trojans! With the campaigns, the crazy outfits, and the sensational school spirit, it is hard to believe this is a school and not a block party. Still, these teachers manage to get some lessons in despite the potential distractions. HOWEVER, Nature tried to interfere with our Homecoming by bringing on Hurricane Helene. Still, even this great force knew that nothing stops PCHS Homecoming!

HOMECOMING IN THE VALLEY

PEACH COUNTY TROJANS VS WESTOVER

Our Trojan stars have shown out for our homecoming football game coming in with an outstanding win of 55-36. Quarterback D.J. Hudson totaled in 166 yards passing and 150 yards rushing. He also came in with 2 rushing touchdowns, as well as 4 touchdown passes. Running back Zion Hudson made 3 touchdowns receiving while having 55 yards during this game. Genes are definitely on these brothers' sides. Lastly, Ashton Barton, wide receiver, gained 119 yards rushing and 2 touchdowns. These numbers run off the chart when we are on our home turf!

QUASAR

Wow! Peach County Homecoming did its job by bringing our community together for fun, sports, and royalty. Now it is time to venture through other happenings in our school. In many ways, our Trojans are their own quasars—energy sources in space that illuminate for all to see. Quasars emit radiation just like Trojans exude success. Still, we all convey these bright vibes in our own ways.

If Nicholas Davis and Tobey Griggs were characters on Inside Out, which would each be? 7. The pep rally brings serious expressions from Johniah Berryhill and Jimmy Davis. 8. Eriniyah Hollingshed and Imani Wootson can't wait for the bell to ring to get on those phones.

If there is anything that Fort Valley is known for aside from peaches and Blue Bird, it is football. Coach Westbrook has settled in here where he belongs, and we could not be happier or prouder. This year gave our boys the chance to confront an old rival—the Calhoun Yellow Jackets. While we fell short in a 38-28 game, we can still boast that we are awesome Region Champs! All we have to say is that those Jackets better be ready, because Trojans are ready for more! Until next season, Go Black & Gold!

PCHS GIRLS SOFTBALL

Our Lady Trojans team has exceeded expectations this year to surpass the Milky Way! They have enjoyed win after win, which has afforded them the title of Regional Champions. The playoff games welcomed these Trojans, which ended with an unfortunate loss to Pickens. Despite that, we all can agree that this team has gone above and beyond to make their presence known. Nothing can compare to how hard these Lady Trojans have worked for their place in the record books this year.

Exciting events are always on the calendar for PCHS, and our Special Olympics program is no exception. At various times and venues throughout the year, our Partners Club and talented athletes attend and compete to show what being a Trojan really means. We have hosted these celebrations on our own turf, while we have also traveled to compete with other schools. The Special Olympics program has provided awesome ways to demonstrate diverse and healthy competition that highlights accomplishments of all types of students. With strong support and leadership through our Partners Club, we applaud these wins and gains that contribute to the many accolades PCHS has accomplished this year.

The boys finished 17th out of all AAA high school teams. This is an incredible accomplishment and the future looks very bright for Aydriana and the Trojan runners.

SWIMMING STROKES IN THE STARS

A Trojan is magnificent on water or land. Micah New shows this as he has made Peach County history for our first competitive swimmer. As if that was not impressive enough, he placed 13th in the state for the 100 Freestyle and 17th in the 100 breaststroke. We hope he sets a precedent for new sports here at the high school.

TENNIS: A GALAXY OF LOVE

Kelcey Jackson, Garrison Cole, Edgar Rodriguez, Joey Decker, Coach David Wright, Micah New, Khazlon Harris, Damian Rodriguez, Chandler Williams, Jeremiah Rhodes

This team knows the sweat and sun well as it beats on our beautiful tennis courts. With Coach Wright and Coach Jones, they improve with every stroke, and the competition knows it. Even when they seem to be on a "stroke" of good luck, know that for these Trojans, it is all skill.

These are the true lovers of the stars who make sure the Trojans have the support, instruction, and leadership that they need. They work well past the forty-hour expectation and oftentimes take their work home with them. Still, it is all worth it in the end, as working in education is a calling that all of these adults have answered.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR

MRS. CONNIE MCCAIN

Mrs. McCain with her husband, Chris, and their seven-year-old son, Jesse.

Connie McCain has been chosen as Teacher of the Year and is recognized for her efforts in education, student relationships, and contributing to our school climate. Her subjects have included US History, World History, AP Human Geography, and Government. Mrs. McCain has been teaching for twenty years, and six of those have been at Peach County. She is also highly appreciated for serving as the advisor for Student Council, where she makes for an excellent leader and facilitator.

"I firmly believe that God made me a teacher. I've had times that have tested me and God has always placed someone in my path to remind me that I love it and I'm good at it. I'm honored to have inspired students to become teachers and teachers to become administrators. I'm at home in the class with my kids."
-Mrs. McCain

Mrs. McCain with her C-Hall "next door neighbor" and co-worker, Ms. Braswell.

McCain earned her degrees at Jacksonville State University with a Bachelor of Arts in History and a minor in Art History. She then earned her Masters in Secondary Education of Social Science. When asked what keeps her in education, she laughs that students and co-workers are always an adventure.

"When I first thought about developing a career, I was fascinated by the idea of curating exhibits and artifacts for museums. My mother had other plans, since she saw me teaching students while explaining the cleaning process for bronze statues. She believed my talents were wasted in a museum. She believed, wholeheartedly, that I was meant to teach. I reluctantly believed her to some extent while completing my MAT. I figured out really quickly that I didn't have to be just like the great teachers that inspired me; what a relief it is to not have to live up to those expectations!

Ever since the first day of my career, I loved teaching. I just had to realize teaching is talking to students about what you love and how to understand it better."

★ STAR STUDENT ★ STAR TEACHER:

★ DESTINY PENNY ★

★ MS. SUSAN GEORGE ★

Dr. George is now in her second year teaching at PCHS. In her twenty-two years of teaching, her subjects have included AP Biology, Biology, and Anatomy. She is the proud mother to Cadelyn, who plans to follow her mother's footsteps in the field of teaching.

Dr. George describes Destiny as "the perfect triple threat of intelligence, work ethic and a strong sense of personal responsibility". She gives teachers hope through her kindness, humility and confidence, all of which highlight her academic strengths.

In regards to our theme, Dr. George believes that the stars are not just the remnants of our past; they are the guiding lights of our future, reminding us that our destiny is written in the cosmos.

To be named as the Star Student is one of the top honors of a lifetime. The student who receives this title must have the highest score on the SAT, which is no easy feat. Destiny Penny is all-deserving. She has established positive relationships with so many in the Peach school system as well as within our community. Following graduation, Destiny plans to attend University of Georgia to study animal science with a hopeful career as a veterinarian.

In regards to Dr. George, Destiny admires her exceptional dedication to her profession and students, her understanding nature, and her distinctive teaching methodology. Destiny recognizes that Dr. George possesses a unique understanding of the challenges inherent to high school and has adapted her lesson plans in innovative ways that benefit students while fostering a deep comprehension of the subject matter.

Destiny has wonderful advice for her peers and fellow graduates. She explains that it is unlikely to become a Star Student or Valedictorian by simply settling for "good enough". Destiny is always willing to seek improvement and advises others to do the same.

Destiny recognizes that she owes it to herself, her family, and the world around her to consistently strive for excellence and capitalize on all opportunities. She believes that continuing to help others is written in the stars for her. This young woman will ultimately give back to the community that is so proud of her.

2025 Yearbook Dedication:

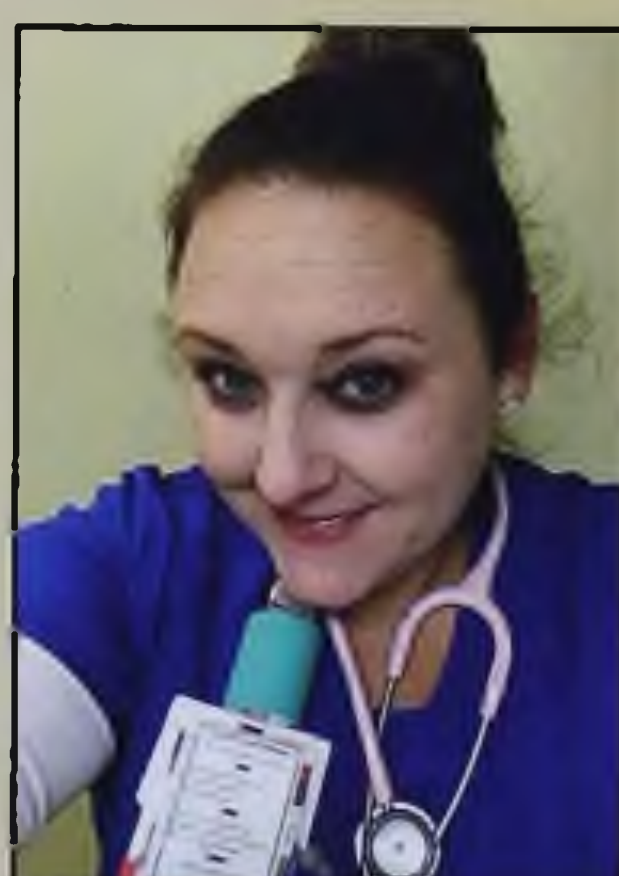

Mrs. Kristine Spivey

Each year, the PCHS Yearbook Staff seniors choose someone in the community or school system who deserves this year's dedication. This person has a positive impact not only in our school, but she or he contributes to the betterment of our community as well. This year, we have chosen Mrs. Kristine Spivey.

Mrs. Spivey is a proud alumna of Peach County High School. After graduation, she gained employment at Boeing for fifteen years, during which she also obtained an education in nursing. Her life and careers are in constant motion; she teaches CNS at CGTC and also works as a nurse at Houston Healthcare on the orthopedic and surgical floor. She does all this while loving her growing family—her husband, Michael, their two sons and daughters-in-law, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Spivey has been teaching healthcare at PCHS for eight years, where she gives back to the same system that helped shape her. She has touched so many lives and gained the trust of a multitude of students, parents, and staff members. She hosts numerous blood drives, offers health screenings, and she provides confidential medical advice to so many in our community.

We thank Mrs. Spivey for her commitment to our student body and are proud to have her as a member of our Peach family.

PEACH COUNTY
HIGH SCHOOL
CLASS OF 2025

WE FACE

Sometimes, we just need to get up close and personal. Other times, we need some space to get our thoughts together. For any of these moments, a Trojan in need is a Trojan in deed. As we approach our "close" to the year, we remember just how "close" we can really be.

BELOW: It is up close and personal for Ja'leah Everett.

BELOW: Isabella Aguilar and Abigail Ortiz face up to game day on the soccer field.

BELOW: Surprised, Kyndra?

BELOW: Shaggy hair, don't care.

ABOVE: Jamora has her face up but seems to be daydreaming.

ABOVE RIGHT: Friendship is "Precious" for Haley Harris.

BELOW: Demaurie Ford demands an answer.

Each page of this yearbook boasts a memory dear to a Trojan. Still, as we turn these pages, we also know that the end of 2025's school year approaches. We must soon face the challenges of summer jobs, the hopes of the new school year, or—for our seniors—the great beyond and all it has to offer. Regardless, we are readers of mixed emotions when we are so close to the end of this literary masterpiece.

RIGHT: Savor the flavor while you can.

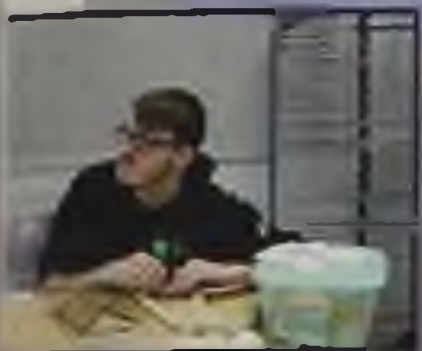

BELOW: Soraya doesn't trust 2026

BELOW: April Glaze will remember the good ole' dayz.

ABOVE: 2025 has been a work of art for Lucas Johnson. RIGHT: Nicholas is already looking behind him.

ABOVE: Korial & Jha'Sean may smile to summer, but Camryn—not so much.

ABOVE: Ms. Caldwell has to get her hugs in while she can.

ABOVE: 2025 has exhausted Jordin.

WHEN A STORY BEGINS TO CLOSE

ABOVE: Alexandra Brake wishes she could get the "brakes" on this year with her friend Kendall Nelson.

ABOVE: It will be okay, James.

RIGHT: Even though Madelyn Clett is a junior, she knows that every second counts as she prepares for her final year here at the big Peach.

WHEN THE STARS FORM

Before becoming the shining stars they are now, the class of 2025 seniors were just babies, listening to "Twinkle, Twinkle little star" on repeat. They will continue to grow with sparkles in their eyes like they have been doing since birth.

To our Grandson, Caden

From the first second we laid eyes on your precious, beautiful, little round face, we loved you more than life itself. From that moment on, you have filled our lives with the most wonderful joy, pride, laughter, delight, but most of all love. You have grown from that tiny child into a wonderful young man, who can go out and conquer the world in his own way. Whatever road in life you choose, do it with God leading the way, give it your all, and know that Nana and Pawpaw are always here for you.

Mark is a super nice guy! Helped us when our heat went out in the middle of a cold snap. We just needed a larger fuse. He diagnosed the problem, repaired it and got our heat back up and running in just a couple hours. Nice to know there are honest people out there like him."-Leah Haywood
